Support Services

The Fort Pierce Housing Authority provides the following support services: Section 8 Vouchers, Home Ownership assistance for new and existing properties (provided in partnership with local institutions in consultations with local citizens).

Other Accomplishments

The City of Fort Pierce continues to collaborate with public, private, and non-profit organizations to carry out its affordable housing programs. These partnerships allow the City's programs to be effective in providing resources to the community. The City has implemented Housing Workshops once a month in collaboration with legal services, lenders, and real estate agents. During the workshop, the public is able to answer questions, provide insight to programs, and assist the public in better connecting to resources.
